

Jonah

Remember that these monologues are essentially historical fiction, based on the Scripture but filling in plausible subjective details, both emotional responses and motivations. Your first task is to decide if they are reasonable.

Why is Jonah's story written in the Bible?

Have you ever wished to be a famous Evangelist or Christian Leader?

Have you ever thought, "I wish Jesus hadn't said that?"

Are there times you have said to God, "I'll do anything but that?"

Have you ever been saved from what might have been a fatal situation?

Did it have an impact on your life?

Do we have trouble forgiving as we have been forgiven?

If God uses you, what should be your response?

What do you think Jonah 4:11 means: "a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left"?

Why mention cattle?
