

Micah and the Idols Discussion

Remember that these monologues are essentially historical fiction, based on the Scripture but filling in plausible subjective details, both emotional responses and motivations. Your first task is to decide if they are reasonable.

Why is Micah so confused about religion?

Are there people around like that today?

What did he think would satisfy God?

What is your impression of the Levite from Bethlehem?

Why was Micah so easily deceived by him?

Did the Danites seem to think that having a Priest is a good luck charm or a tool?

What do you think was their criteria for choosing that particular Levite?

Is that the way some people today pick a church?

Micah seemed to have an “Ah Hah!” moment. Do you think he will find his answers?

Where should we go for answers to religious questions?
