

For You, Mom

In remembrance of your birthday, March 16, 1923.

I didn't always take time to let you know
Just how special you were to me,
But I loved you more than words can say.
I'm so grateful
For all the things you did,
Both big and small
That made me feel loved.
You gave so much of yourself
Day after day and year after year.
Thanks for being such a caring and wonderful mom.
I miss you so much – your voice,
Your encouragement, your joyful spirit.

Love and tears,

Your daughter, Karin Edythe
