

Rock of Ages

The strong repeating waves beat hard against my soul.

But I know, O Lord, that You are in complete control!

I hide myself in You as You keep me safe in the cleft of Your Rock.

I seek Your Kingdom first to trust and honor You for You supply my every need.

I feel so weak and small in this world of uncertainties but You promised to use me by Your grace for Your specific purposes.

Therefore, I do not compare myself to others or worry about what they think of me or fret about what I'm to do.

For I ask You, Lord, to search my heart to test and try me and show me what I need to change so You can mold and shape me to reflect you fully as I submit my will to You.

And even if I drift away and feel alone and scared You will never leave my side and will carry me back within Your arms for in You I will always hide.
